Hurricane Sandy Affects Chenoweth Cousins!

Hurricane Sandy affected many east coast residents. Our cousins Chuck and Sandy who reside in Toms River, New Jersey, were just one of many touched by this historic storm. Chuck reported to Jon the following:

> "To my knowledge no one was hurt, though lots of property damage. I noticed the one house, two cars - - all three gone. When I say best of best, I mean no loss of life or injury. Within 3 or 4 miles radius of our home, areas I frequently drive through, we're 8 miles from the beach- - and still a small fraction of the devastation, we see areas closer to the water are still sealed from public access - too many downed live wires, then gas main bubbling through the sand; already hundreds of homes have burned to the ground. What is the inventory cost of the average family condo? Refrigerator/Freezer---maybe $300/$500, if starting new, multiply that by 1-1/2 - 2.0 million families still without power, the figure is staggering. I was in 3 grocery stores yesterday looking for milk----not only no milk but NO dairy, cheeses, sour cream, butter and NO condiments, no fresh fruits, veggies, no meats, poultry or fish. The loss to the grocery is beyond unbelievable. Where can people go to get warm? There are the standard charities like the Red Cross, United Way, various faith based (church) charities here. Many times a donation to Red Cross, for example, will be matched by the Weather Channel. I urge you to donate as much as you are comfortable with to a charity of your choice. It's getting cold -down to the low 30's last night. We are blessed beyond measure, we do not need anything!! But if you want to help, as seen on the news, socks, sweats , blankets, new underwear, various sizes, toys for kids, batteries, all sizes; or if you want to send checks made out to Red Cross/Sandy or Silverton Volunteer Fire Department, c/o Sandy and sent to my address at 298 Barbados Drive N, Toms River, NJ 08757, I will deliver them to the right place. Most of all keep all of us in your prayers. Thanks – Chuck and Sally"

EDWARD DEFOREST CHENOWETH

Edward DeForest Chenoweth was the son of Alexander Thornton Chenoweth and Elizabeth Eshleman. They married November 04, 1852 in Ohio. In 1860, the family was located in Wayne Co., OH. By 1870, they were in Chicago. By 1880, Elizabeth was widowed and she and her children (there were 7 that I know of including William and Clara) were in Oakland, CA. I don't know when or where Alexander died. In genealogy terms the family withered, with the only known children from Edward's oldest brother Wellington, who had a daughter Ora who married Robert L. Roberts and moved to Orange Co., CA. [Wellington committed suicide (gun) dying in June 02, 1912 - his brother George also attempted suicide] and William, who married Nellie Buckman who had a son Walter William Chenoweth, who died a 32. I have that William died in 1883, so I am surprised he was mentioned. The mother. Elizabeth, Edward's brothers John and George, are buried along with sisters Clara and Emma, who are buried in the Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, Alameda Co., CA. Clara never married. A better description of the family is found in the Harris book "The Chenoweth Family in America" on page 601 under Elizabeth. Harris did not know Elizabeth's husband, which we traced. Alexander Thornton was born in Virginia. I wrote an article about this for our Winchester reunion this summer. As the newsletters have not yet been posted, I am including it below. In the 1910 Census, Edward is married but I do not know his wife.

For some reason. Chenoweth's in San Francisco are hard to get information on. I know my great grandfather had a brother, Dr. William Chenoweth, who lived in San Francisco, but I have never found a trace of him after he was in Nevada.

[Arthur2] How to deal with Thornton.

In the fall of 2009, I received a copy of a transcription of the Will of Samuel Chenoweth, Jr. of Berkeley Co., VA (now WV). John Wilson Chenoweth was kind enough to obtain this for me along with the Will of Joseph in Washington Co., IN, his own ancestor. These are the 36th and 37th Wills I have been able to add to the Will page that I began in 2003, as part of the documentation of the family. Samuel's Will confronted me with Thornton, a puzzle I have simply ignored. Thornton is found on page 376 of the Harris book. I was still pondering the best way of handling him. Genealogy programs do not lend themselves well to puzzles of this nature. I have been remiss in not addressing this earlier and have skirted the question by simply not including Thornton in the database.

Samuel Jr.'s Will gives us the first of two glimpses we have of Thornton. To Wit:

"Fourth, to Thornton Chenoweth, my grandson I hereby give and devise the sum of one hundred dollars to be paid by my son James W. when the said Thornton shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, also one bedstead, bed and bedding complete, the same which was reserved in my devise to my son James"

The 2nd is in the 1850 Census. Richard Harris did a presentable job of presenting Thornton to us, so I will simply include his own words.

"Concerning the grandson Thornton, that Samuel mentioned, a Thornton, a carpenter age 20, was recorded in the 1850 Census living with the Christian Shaffer family in Martinsburg, in Berkeley County. Nothing more is known about him, but it is possible that this Thornton was a child of Samuel's first son, George Miller, about whom also nothing is known. Samuel's other son James William married three times and was known to have had sixteen children, but none of them was named Thornton."

Without some additional source of information, this perplexing enigma cannot be easily resolved. I do not think that Thornton was a son of George Miller, who must have died young. George is not in the 1820 or 1830 Census numbers for Samuel's household. Nor is he in the 1820 numbers for Samuel's father. Thornton does appear in the 1830 Census numbers as a young child living with Samuel, Jr., so the known facts seem to eliminate George.

The daughter Hester, appears to be free of this question as she was married in 1829 to George Couchman and had a daughter Rebecca that year. Thornton is white, so the question of some "hankypanky" with Samuel's slaves seems out. Thornton, as a son of James William who later evidenced ample ability of spawning children, does not make a good case. Illegitimate sons seldom carried the name of the father and were more often raised in the homes of the mother. There is no record of another marriage precluding the answer that James had a 4th, first wife who died after a child.

The sense of things seems to fall to Julia, who would have been 17 when Thornton was born and did not marry until age 22 to her first husband William Kerney in 1835. After William's death she would remarry to John George Ramsburg. Logic seems to tell us that Thornton was Julia's. In presenting this to my wife Deanna, and reading her Samuel's Will, Deanna noticed an oddity that seems to confirm this logic. Often there is an adherence to equality when dealing with heirs. In this case, the son got most everything and the daughters a slave and some money. But Hester was given $500 dollars and Julia $400. The $100 difference coincides with the amount given to Thornton. I think Samuel's Will confirms what we can only surmise, Thornton was Julia's child. This also confirms our analysis that Thornton was not from George Miller as had he been George's only heir he would have received at least an equal share or more as Hester and Julia. The point may be moot as the name Thornton is never found again after the 1850 Census. But I do have a suspicion of just what may have happened to Thornton.

On page 601, Harris describes a wife, Elizabeth, in this manner "Elizabeth was recorded in the 1880 Census in Oakland, Alameda County, California, with seven children. The family had much trouble. One of the sons took his own life, another attempted suicide, and another shot and killed a friend and business associate, then ended his own life." Pete, in Census work and supporting records, determined that Elizabeth's husband was an Alexander T. Chenoweth and she was Elizabeth Eshleman. In 1860, they are found in Wayne Co., OH. Alexander is 30 years old from Virginia. His occupation is a joiner. In 1870 he is in Chicago, age 40, from Virginia and listed as a carpenter. The marriage record gives us the initials A.T. All this matches Thornton and only Thornton, his age, his birth location and his occupation. There are simply not enough loose ends in Virginia for us to believe that is anyone else than Thornton. Without actual proof, this is as sure enough a match to put Alexander, as Alexander Thornton, in the pending list of placements that I have made to the database."

SAMUEL4 CHENOWETH, JR. (SAMUEL3, ARTHUR2, JOHN1) was born July 20, 1771 in Baltimore Co., MD, and died September 20, 1852 in Berkeley Co., VA (now WV). He married MARY 'POLLY' MILLER August 08, 1799 in Berkeley Co., VA (now WV), daughter of JAMES MILLER and ESTHER DICKEY. Dear Jon,
RE: James Carter
Actually, the neighbor and potential cousin was listed as Rita Schimpff. I believe her mother is Clarita Johnson and she lives next door to my parents.

Sarah,
You have it right, Rita Marie Rozelle Schimpff found me before the Dallas Reunion in 2009 and was a delightful addition to that reunion. I remember her well. This is like the third time the database has linked two friends as cousins. It is something I have wanted to do myself and you would think that after 86,000 names I would have done it, but for me the search still goes on, but how great for you. Rita is from the line of Thomas Chenoweth, Hannah's brother. I copied Rita.

Dear Jon,

Thanks for making this connection (and the kind words). I look forward to hearing from Sarah and who she is descended from.

Dear Jon,
Just wanted to say thank you very much for putting us in touch with Greg. We just got home after 5 weeks bumming. We had a wonderful time in Louisville, the Spring House, which is totally over grown now and was a little hard to find even for Greg, a couple cemeteries and all. On our way up to friends in West Virginia, we stopped at the covered bridge as Greg had told me about it. How very interesting. Then went to Gettysburg and then Joppa Town. Met a fellow at the church and he asked us to come in as they had a pencil drawing of the old church and many artifacts. I took many pictures and notes and will have to go through them now. Hope you are doing okay as Greg said you were having a few problems.

Jim,
Trying to start to dig myself out. Sounds like you had a great tour of "Chenowethdom". Glad Greg was able to help. He is a special person. Deanna and I visited Gettysburg before the Maryland Reunion. It was special.

Lawrence M. Woods, Ph.D.

Dear Jon,
I am hoping you can help me with identifying a man involved in my historical research so as to place him in the Chenoweth family tree. His name was Edward DeForest Chenoweth, n Ohio on June 7, 1861San Franciscoon August 2, 1923. He came to San Francisco in 1873 and is found in a number of city directories (usually as Edward D. Chenoweth), beginning at least in 1877, when he was a sign painter. From 1899 to 1906, he was a bartender in the Lick House Hotel, but he was also competent enough as an artist to have a biography in Artists in California 1786-1940. The death notice from the mortician's records say he was "loving brother of William and Clara E. Chenoweth, a native of Ohio." I note that there was a Clara Chenoweth, 47, single, born in Indiana, in the 1930 San Francisco census, but I have found no other identification of her either. I wonder if you have come upon this family?

Lawrence,
Thanks for the middle name! Here is the information you requested.
(My response to Lawrence Woods' email is printed in this edition of the newsletter. See "Edward DeForest Chenoweth".)

I apologize for you not receiving the last 2 issues of The Chenoweth Family News". It should be noted that they were not sent out. Due to technical difficulties we were unable to complete and go to press with our December 2012 and March 2013 issues. We hope that this finds all well. International Research Project

With the effort that everyone had put forth over the past years, I knew of no one who had made a physical effort to find out who John1 was in Cornwall.

In April 2012, I contacted a professional researcher by the name of Richard Shimell and asked his rates for this project. I was advised that he charged a rate of 17 pounds an hour (this obviously would vary at US$ based on the rate of exchange when bills were submitted) and cost of copies made.

In June 2012, the Chenoweth Family Association Board of Directors approved allocating funds to hire him, to see if it would be possible to identify John1. The board approved the allocation of between $1,000-$3,000 for this project.

Making sure that we had all the information available to him that we could, I put him in contact with Jon Egge and asked that he keep both of us advised of his progress.

In May 2013, we received his final conclusions. A complete copy of his report is posted at the Chenoweth Family website. Total cost to Mr Shimell for this project was less than $1,000.

According to his report, unfortunately there is no definitive proof to say exactly who John1 is. There is an individual who may very well be the person we are looking for, but there are many areas and time frames where information is not available and that could contain our John.

[THOMAS] Score one more for the 1870 Census

Williams is a tough name to sort out. Good grief, there were 1 and a half million Williams in the US in 2000, the 3rd most common name on this most recent list. Anna Chenoweth, the last child of John Chenoweth and his 2nd wife Mary Van Buskirk, was born on March 28, 1809 in Ross Co., OH and married Thomas Williams on December 27, 1827 in Vigo Co., IN. They went to Iowa where they are found in the 1850 Census of Mahaska Co., IA. I have not been able to find the family in 1860. In 1998, Debbie Owen from Alabama contacted me and added in some marriages, as well as the line of her ancestor William Williams. Mary the first born daughter, born December 25, 1828 in Vigo Co., IN was said to have married a Joseph Black and an unknown Johnson. I had found the family in the 1880 in my 2001 exercise and indeed Mary and Joseph Black were in Kansas as was her mother, the widow Anna Williams.

The 1870 Census, gives us a far better understanding of the course of events. In 1870, Thomas Williams and Anna are living with their youngest son, Ferdinand Clay Williams in Franklin Co., KS. Next door is Mary Johnson with her 13 year old daughter Anne Johnson, born in Iowa. Next door to Mary is Joseph Black and his wife Mary from Kentucky with their youngest daughter Laura. Apparently Mary had married the Johnson first and by 1880 had remarried to a widowed Joseph Black, her neighbor. Now armed with better information, I relooked in Iowa for an Anna Johnson. Johnson is the 2nd most common name in the US (2000), so this is not an easy search. My best bet is a family living in Jasper Co., IA. Jasper Co. sits kitty-corner to Mahaska Co., so the fit is good. Mary is 31 born Indiana, so that fits. It appears that she is a 2nd wife and that Anna is her child, the same fit for the Anna found with Mary in Kansas in 1870. Whether this is right or not, the correct sequence of the marriages is now known, and we have added a daughter Anna Johnson.
