100 Days and Counting

The following is an open letter that John Chenoweth sent to his immediate family members about the upcoming gather. - editor

I am writing to inform everyone of an upcoming Chenoweth gathering opportunity that I hope you can consider attending. The Chenoweth Family Association has held a national reunion every 2 years in various localities across the country for the past 16 years.

In 2016 it will be the closest it has come to what we call home (except those in Alabama, but Mary Lou started here), Indianapolis Indiana July 14-17, 2016. [It should be noted that the 2008 National Reunion was held in Ft Wayne, IN - editor.]

I attended the 2014 reunion in Oklahoma City Ok and built bonds that I think about daily for the great group of people that I met. Washington, Illinois, Florida, Georgia, West Virginia, Arkansas, Missouri, Colorado, Alabama, Virginia, and of course Texas all represented.

I wish to invite each and every one of you to this gathering, even if it is the only one you ever attend, to meet, mingle, and interact with people you have never known but will be glad you met and can call them family. Because they are, and it can all be explained by the experts at the gathering.

Overall you will meet people from across the country who share your genetic architecture, learn about Chenoweth history, cruise around town on a private coach, or just attend what might be a once in a lifetime event (It took 16 years to get here). I hope you can consider attending this event.

Registration forms can be found at www.chenowethfamily.org and at the end of this newsletter.

Look forward to seeing you

John H Chenoweth (Roy7, John6, Ephraim5, Absolum4, Absolum3, John2, John1)

Time at the Top

By Peter Clinton Chenoweth
Chairman of the Board

As I was preparing to write this it dawned on me that the upcoming gathering will be my final time as a member of the Board of Directors (which I have been on since the board's inception in 2000) and Chairman since the Ft Wayne Reunion in 2008. At the last Reunion (2014 in Oklahoma City) both myself and Vice-Chairman Dick Buchanan (vice-chair since 2010) were asked to stay on in our positions through the end of our director terms. We both agreed with the caveat that we will not run for re-election to the Board. I would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the service that Joyce Wiegand has provided to the Association as a Board member since its inception also (she has also served as its secretary since the beginning).

I feel that we, as an Association, have accomplished a great deal during my tenure as Chairman. An updated incorporation in the state of Florida (thank you FL Mike), an updated set of by-laws (thank you Dick Buchanan and committee), a database that is approaching 215,000 individuals, an enhanced and more definitive DNA database, a newsletter that is in its 15th year of publication, an awards committee, a reunion committee, and most importantly an ACTIVE Board of Directors.

Speaking of the upcoming gathering here are a few highlights that might encourage you to participate.

- a. For those individuals not of the area (and those will just enjoy it) there is bus tour planned of the Indianapolis area (with lunch included). Indiana is celebrating its 150th anniversary and good time should be had by all.
- b. For those of interested in the more technical aspects of genealogy, its future and impact on our family we are pleased to announced the DNA genealogist Dianah Southard will be a guest speaker twice on Saturday. Once with regards to DNA and genealogy in general and the second time about where we stand with our own DNA program (that has been ongoing since it started in 2000)
- c. OF course there is the General Membership meeting on Saturday. This is an opportunity for the general membership to elect new board members (this year there will be 2 vacancies opening) and discuss any other items that is of interest.
- d. Let us not forget the Gathering photo of all who attend. This has become a time honored tradition with all wearing the t-shirts in the color of their second generation ancestor. Those photos are always available the same day for a minimal cost.
- e. All during the reunion there will be an opportunity to place a personal family item in our Century Chest. At its first meeting the board will decide how long this will stay closed but it will definitely provide interesting information for those in the future who open it. This will be sealed during our banquet.
- f. As always there will be the informal personal interactions with other attendees. Opportunities to listen to our own family historian, Jon Egge. Speaking of Jon, it should be noted that your board of directors has funded an individual to interview and video tape Jon and his knowledge of the family. This will put on a dvd and provided (free) to all families that register for the gathering. A donation will be accepted to offset this expense but the purpose was to record for posterity the knowledge that Jon always shares at the gatherings.

Looking forward to seeing you all in Indianapolis in July.

Family Tree Relationships Chart – Understanding Family Relationships

One of most common issues in genealogy is to understand the relationship between two people in a family. For example, most people are familiar with the concept of a sibling (brother or sister) and a cousin, but what exactly is a second cousin twice removed? In this article, we will answer this question by providing a method to determine the relationship between any two people in a family tree. We also include a convenient relationship chart that you can print out and keep for your records.

In most cultures, extended family members interact with each other. For example, guests at a wedding are often distant relatives of the bride or groom. Similarly, witnesses on a marriage license are also often distant relatives. These are the kinds of records people come across when tracing their ancestors. Knowledge of how people are related to each other can provide useful clues when looking at such records.

The easiest way to determine how two people are related to each other is to use what is formally known as a canon law relationship chart, but what is more commonly referred to as a Family Tree Relationship Chart. GenealogyInTime Magazine has created one below for your use.

Family Tree Relationship Chart

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
1	Common Ancestor	Child	Grandchild	Great Grandchild	2nd Great Grandchild	3rd Great Grandchild	4th Great Grandchild	5th Great Grandchild	6th Great Grandchild	7th Great Grandchild

The Family Tree Relationship Chart works on the principal of finding the common ancestor between any two people. In other words, to determine the relationship between two people in a family tree, it is necessary to know what direct ancestor the two people had in common.

This could be a parent, grandparent, great grandparent, great great grandparent, etc. It has to be the same common ancestor for both people. However, the relationship to the common ancestor does not have to be the same for each person. For example, for one person, the common ancestor could be their grandmother, and for another person the same person could be their great grandmother.

Once the common ancestor has been identified, it is a straight forward exercise to determine the relationship between any two relatives. It is simply a matter of looking it up on the Family Tree Relationship Chart.

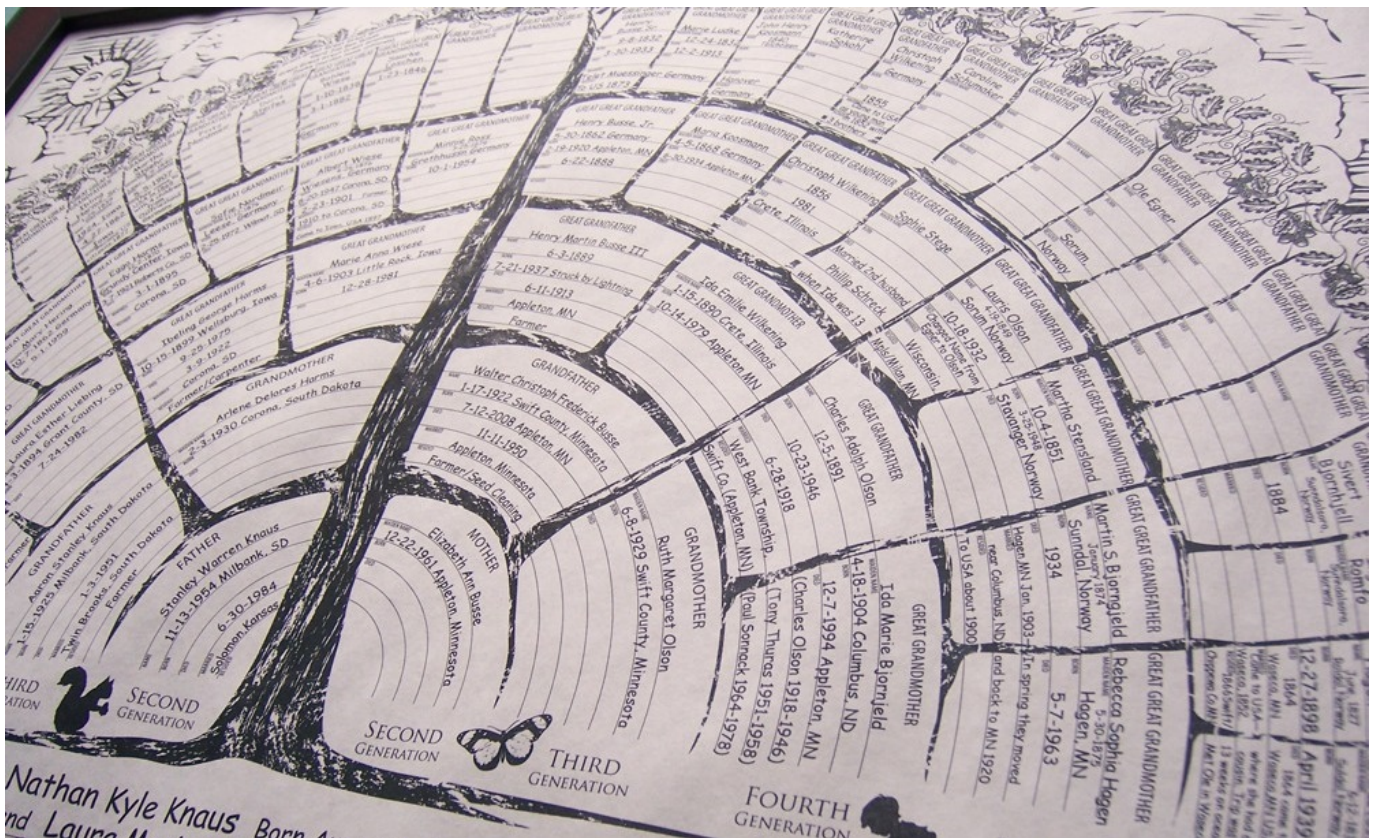

Find the first relative on the first row of the chart (the purple row). The second relative is put on the first column of the chart (the purple column). The point where the row and column intersect is the relationship between the two relatives.

This can be demonstrated with an example. Suppose Relative A was the great great great grandchild of the common ancestor. Go across the first row until you get to the “3rd Great Grandchild”. You can see that Relative A is the 6th generation of the common ancestor.

Now suppose Relative B was the great grandchild of the common ancestor. Going down the first column, this would make Relative B the 4th generation of the common ancestor.

The point where the row and column cross determines the relationship between Relative A and Relative B. In this case, the two relatives are second cousins twice removed (the point where the 6th column and the 4th row cross).

It can take a while to get use to this process. However, this methodology can be used to find the relationship between any two people in a family tree. With a bit of practice, the process becomes fairly straightforward for even relatively convoluted cases.

Another Approach

There are alternate ways to understand family relationships. One method is to visualize a family tree.

It is possible to determine the relationship between any two people by moving up and down as well as across a family tree diagram.

One interesting point is that technically people do not have Great Aunts and Great Uncles but Grand Aunts and Grand Uncles. This is a good trivia question to raise next time you get together with your genealogy friends. Also ask your friends if they know the definition of “nibling” (think sibling except for nieces or nephews).

Some Additional Terms

To assist you further, here are some additional terms that you may come across in your family tree research. These terms do not appear on the Family Tree Relationship Chart:

Paternal Cousin: A cousin from the father's side of the family.

Maternal Cousin: A cousin from the mother's side of the family.

Double Cousin: Cousins that are related on both the paternal side and the maternal side of the family. This could occur, for example, if two sisters in one family married two brothers from another family. Their offspring would be double cousins.

Ortho-Cousin: The children of two brothers or two sisters.

Cross-Cousin: The children of a brother and a sister.

Step Mother/Father/Brother/Sister: There are essentially two kinds of relationships: blood relationships and relationships based on marriage. The Family Tree Relationship Chart is based on blood relationships. Relationships based on marriage are called step relationships. Step relationships follow the same naming pattern and methodology as blood relationships. Thus, there is a step-mother, a step-father, a step-brother and a step-sister. The only difference in naming patterns for step relationships is that they rarely go beyond the immediate family.

Half Sibling: When two children share either the same biological mother or the same biological father (but not both). Half siblings often arise when someone remarries and has children from a previous marriage. If the two parents in the remarriage have a child, the relationship between this child and the children from the previous marriage would be a half sibling. Half siblings refer to each other as half brother or half sister.

Half Cousin: When half brothers or half sisters have children, their offspring refer to each other as half cousins.

Cousin-in-law: The cousin of a spouse. This would be a wife's cousin or a husband's cousin.

Kissing Cousin: This is an honorary title. Kissing cousins often come about when two unrelated families are close to each other. The children of the parents in this situation would sometimes be referred to as kissing cousins. The term refers to the fact the two "cousins" (who are not related by blood or marriage) are close enough that they kiss each other when they greet.

Godparent: Historically, this was a person who sponsored a child's baptism. Sometimes the godparent was a relative and sometimes the godparent was a close friend. Usually, the godparent took a role in the child's upbringing.

Some Caveats

Here are some things to look out for that can trip people up:

- It is possible for people to be related in more than one way. This can occur for example if there is intermarriage within a family (common with royal families) or if there are multiple marriage points across two unrelated families.
- When looking through old family letters, diaries and other correspondence, beware of how the term "cousin" is used between two people. Often, the word cousin was generously used for anyone in the extended family beyond immediate siblings. For example, a second cousin might be referred to simply as "cousin". Or an aunt and niece might refer to each other as cousins, especially if the aunt was close in age to the niece. Or it could simply be a kissing cousin.
- People referred to as an "aunt" or "uncle" may not be blood relatives or step relatives. They could in fact be godparents or simply just good friends of the parents.

Webmaster Needed

The below letter was posted to our newsletter in 2010 by Jon Egge. It indicated the need for someone to 'step up' and help with a project that is massive and can no longer be accomplished by Jon. That was 5 years ago and it is certainly a priority situation now if we are to keep the information current and usable by the world. Jon's health has not gotten any better (recent heart surgery).

We have solved the problem of working on the database as I have taken over that portion of the project and will address assistance with that at a future date.

What we now desperately need is someone who is web oriented, creative and willing to take over both websites (www.chenowethsite.com and www.chenowethfamily.org) Chenowethsite has not been updated in over 10 years and is the main genealogical website of the Chenoweth family that Jon created in Dec 1995. Chenowethfamily is the website for our reunions both future and past that was created by Bill Chinworth and taken over by my daughter-in-law (it will be updated through the 2016 gathering but needs a new webmaster after that).

Whomever is interested must be willing to work with Jon Egge in a transition period for the Chenowethsite. A complete overhaul is possible with a new and fresh look, but maintaining the integrity of the information is a must as it has been one of the finest genealogical websites on the internet. They must also be willing to work with me when it comes to the database that supplies the bulk of the data for the website. Once overhauled (updated) I would envision that it be updated at least once a year.

This is not a short term situation to fix as the detail that Jon has put into it has taken many years to develop. Anyone interested please contact me at p.chenoweth@comcast.net.

The "time" Draws Near

An open letter from Jon Egge

This is a short message from an aging webmaster. I am no longer able to keep my head above water with the happenings and information of this burgeoning family. My abilities to cope with it are frankly fading and I do not know how much longer I can continue this project. That does not mean that I am not interested in continuing to work on the genealogy of this family, but it does mean that it is time to find others that want to take up parts of the work.

I have been hinting at this for some time now, but we have not found the method that would enable others to take this over. This past year has left me dissatisfied with the mountain of details I have not had the ability or inclination to include. I have worked at this almost daily for long hours and I find myself unable to continue at the level needed. So things will and must change.

I hope to be part of that change, whatever form it takes. Certainly it is not going to happen immediately, but until it does, much is going to be left undone. We have come a long ways and it is really remarkable what we have all accomplished in understanding, preserving and celebrating this family that we all belong to.

I should add that though cousins have volunteered to help with input we do not yet have a way of having multiple people working on the same database. Genealogy programs are single user databases. Yes there are websites that allow multiple users to work together, but they do not allow you to recover the full gedcom, so once you assign the database to the web and expand it, you are stuck there. One future possibility comes from a dialogue we have started with cousin Doug Blank of Havertown, PA last year who is involved with a project called "Gramps" to create the type of website Pete and I are dreaming of. To assist this effort I gave Doug a gedcom of our file so that he could design code that would handle something of this magnitude and density.

MOMENT WITH THE WEBMASTER

By Jon Egge
(Descendant of Dr Henry S.5 Chenoweth of Chillicothe, OH)
James Francis⁴, Thomas³, John², John¹)

After almost 20 years of working the family, surprises just keep coming. Peter working with Texas death certificates came across this entry:

“Laura Ann (Williams) Bothwell b: 24 Mar 1854, Pike Co., IL d: 19 Aug 1932, Dallas, Dallas Co., TX p: H.J. Williams (b: KY) & Ruth Chenoweth (b: IL) spouse: J.H. Bothwell”

He busily set about finding the couple in the 1850 through 1900 Census, all of them ending up in Pike Co., IL. Over the span Ruth Ann said she was born in IL, KY and TN. The marriage of Ruth Ann and Henry had been sitting in the unknown marriage file from the Harris research. The marriage had taken place January 06, 1850 in McDonough Co., IL. We had never found any Chenoweths this early in McDonough and it didn't at all fit with the family of William, next door in Fulton Co. Now we had a date of birth, always important to frame a search. The possibility we had was Ruthann, the daughter of John Augustus in Tennessee. The Harris book implied that she had married Henry Preston, but by the will of Nicholas, Henry Preston was her brother so this was likely confused.

To wit: “Ruth, Henry Preston and John Addison Chinowth, heirs of John Chenowth - $50 each.”

But how did that work with an Illinois marriage? I decided to see what I could learn about John's wife Abigail Hunt. Assuming she would have been born in Tennessee and about 1810 (John was born December 29, 1809 and the marriage was August 03, 1831 in Washington Co., TN) ancestry came up with a likely Abigail that was the d/o Joshua Hunt and Nancy Abigail Bacon. When I looked at Joshua, I was startled to see he died in 1852 in McDonough Co., IL.

As I would reply to Pete “Oh my gawd”... I then tried the 1850 Census for Joshua and came up with this.

Year: 1850; Census Place: , McDonough, Illinois; Roll M432_116; Page: 264; Image: 372 dwelling 483

Joshua Hunt 63-MD farmer

Nancy Hunt 60-TN

Westley Hunt 24-TN farmer

Amanda Hunt 18-IL

Abby Chernich 45-TN [Abigail 'Abbie' Hunt]

Henry Chernich 16-IL farmer

John Chernich 14-IL

Chilotte Bacon 60-VA [black]

Zounds, there it was: Abigail the widow and the two sons. Now we had dates. We know what happened to John, he shows up in the 1870 Census of Arizona. Henry Preston is never seen again. Ruth Ann had married right before the Census. We had never found this as the indexing of Chernich did not show up under a “Chen” wildcard. Believe me we had looked for this hard, but always thought it would be in Tennessee. So

John A. "Gus" Chenoweth was born in Illinois. John Augustus, who is said to have been a preacher, must have died in the later 1830's. Joshua Hunt is listed in the 1840 Census of Illinois. This is the frustrating mystery of pre 1850 Censuses where Chenoweths are hidden in the numbers of a maternal grandparent or other relative. This was the same case that had been found in my own line with the daughters Sarah and Margaret Chenoweth living with their grandfather Henry Safley in Champaign Co., OH.

I spent the day, expanding on the family of the 11 children of Ruth, finding 4 daughter marriages in the Illinois State database.

RUTH ANN6 CHENOWETH (JOHN AUGUSTUS5, NICHOLAS4, JOHN3, RICHARD2, JOHN1) was born June 1832 in Illinois. She married HENRY J. WILLIAMS January 06, 1850 in McDonough Co., IL. He was born Abt. 1826 in Kentucky.

Children of RUTH CHENOWETH and HENRY WILLIAMS are:

- i. S. ABIGAL 'ABBIE'7 WILLIAMS, b. Abt. 1851, Pike Co., IL.
- ii. AMANDA K. WILLIAMS, b. August 1852, Pike Co., IL.
- iii. LAURA ANN WILLIAMS, b. March 24, 1854, Pike Co., IL; d. August 19, 1932, Dallas, Dallas Co., TX; m. JAMES H. BOTHWELL, August 31, 1880, Pike Co., IL; b. May 10, 1853, Perth Ambay, CANADA; d. November 21, 1924, Tyler, Smith Co., TX.

[RICHARD] A letter from Quackenbush

Sometimes you get things out of the blue. This during October [2009] I received a letter from Jean Quackenbush of Steilacoom, WA. My company once did a project there. And then when in college I had a fraternity brother named Bill Quackenbush from Bellingham, but I don't know how he spelled it. There seems to be 2 spellings, the larger Quackenbushs and the smaller Quackenbush, somewhat similar in size to Chenoweth and Chenowith. I have some Quackenbushs from Indiana in the file. Jean was asking about the several marriage records involving weddings in Benton Co., AR involving a Leona Chinoworth, S.L. Chenoth, Mrs. Sarah Chenowith and Sarah L. Livesay, who married Joseph Chenoweth, all in the 1890s. It involves the youngest 2 children of Nelson H. Chenoweth who married Sarah W. King. Jean's letter included a 1900 Census record in Colorado which helped me sort this out and confirm some earlier assumptions Peter and I had made. How surprising that her inquiry sifted things out! I can't thank her enough.

Here is the Census record.

Year: 1900; Census Place: Divide Creek, Garfield, Colorado; Roll T623_123; Page: 9A; Enumeration District: 37

John Kerr Feb 1844-NC (NC NC)

Leona Kerr Aug 1865-AR (TN TN) married 9 child 1/1

Robert Kerr Aug 1895-AR (NC AR)

Felix Levisy May 1882-AR (AR AR) step son

Caldwell Kerr Dec 1882-AR (NC MS) son

Charles Scott Jul 1886-AR (MO MO) step son

This is Sarah Leona Chenoweth. We believe she married 4 times and the Colorado marriage record reflects 3 of these. In the 1910 Census Leona corrects herself and states that she has had 4 children and 3 are living. That Census added her daughter Grace born in 1902. Felix must have died as Charles, Robert and Grace are found in subsequent Censuses in Colorado. Robert would marry Pearl J. Hightower.

On July 10, 1880 Sarah Leona married David Boyd in Benton Co. The marriage was short lived as on February 21, 1882 in neighboring MacDonald Co., MO, there is a record of Lee Chenoweth marrying Jefferson Livesay. This was the missing piece for me, proven by the 1900 Census, producing the son Felix. Pete had suspected this marriage of Lee and Jefferson to be Sarah Leona and now we had proof.

Jefferson was the s/o Jessa and Ceclia Livesay. His sister, Sarah Elizabeth, married Joseph Edwin Chenoweth. Jean was confused by the two Sarah's as their initials were the same. Sarah Leona, apparently, after each marriage took back her Chenoweth name. Her marriage to Jefferson Livesay was also short lived. I believe Jefferson went to Texas and remarried for there is a matching record for him in Lamar Co., TX with a wife and child in the 1900 Census. Meanwhile Sarah remarried to William T. Scott on October 18, 1883 as S.L. Chenoth. They had a son Charles. Whatever happened to William, Sarah Leone married a 4th time to John W. Kerr on February 05, 1889, this time as Mrs. Sarah Chenoweth. Confusing as the marriage records are, the tangle becomes clear with Jean's Colorado Census find.

Joseph Edwin and Sarah Elizabeth Livesay who married February 22, 1882 had a son John Edward Chenoweth. In 1900 Sarah Elizabeth is remarried to Elija W. Arnold and they are living in Benton Co., AR with Elizabeth's son John. This leaves a question as to what happened to Joseph? I now believe he becomes a candidate for a marriage in Washington or Oregon to Martha Anne Dyer of Tennessee. This marriage produced Clarence Chenoweth, an unknown line produced by an early telephone call to Harvey Merle Chenoweth of Olympia, WA. I had for years suspected another Joseph from Tennessee who I knew to be in Washington. It wasn't the best of fits. Now I see Joseph Edwin as a real likelihood. The problem is we have no dates for the Joseph who married Martha and he really could be anyone, but Joseph Edwin has the right feel.

[Richard] Archibald Chenoweth

There are 5 Archibald's in my file, one was part of the Randolph Co., WV bunch, the other 4 part of the Tennessee lines of John Chenoweth, son of Richard. The first Archibald was John's son, a brother to Nicholas. Whereas Nicholas had the larger family, Archibald has a thin traceable line that branches today into Tennessee, Kentucky, Illinois and Texas. Archibald married Prudence Barnes on February 19, 1803 in Berkeley Co., VA (now WV); and though many Chenoweths married in this area, Archibald was the only known line of Richard to go to Virginia. Maybe he had been lured there by his stories of his father's cousins, John and Arthur, who moved to this area around 1790 from Baltimore. It is a bit puzzling. They had 2 children, both born in Maryland. Once wed, did he go back to Baltimore? His mother Frances and brother Nicholas had already left for Tennessee in the 1790s, or was this the edge of Maryland that abuts Berkeley Co. I do not know. What we do know is that by 1830 Archibald was in Sullivan Co., TN and by 1840 in adjoining Washington Co. where his brother had settled.

The names Archibald and Nicholas are plucked from the Haile family, their mother's family. Archibald's children were Sarah and Ezekial, Ezekial being a unique name in the family. Sarah married Jacob Sheets in Washington Co., TN and the couple went to Hardin Co., KY. I wrote about this family in Mar 2007. Ezekial married Sarah Jobe the d/o Enoch Jobe and Elizabeth Jackson on July 14, 1856, Ezekial's first wife, Elizabeth having died without apparent issue. Sarah survived to the 1900 Census, her husband Ezekial last seen in the 1880. They had 2 children, John Albert and Parizade, both born in Washington Co. As I understand it the name Parizade came from the Arabian Tales of 1000 and one nights. She married George Washington Ford and had 4 children. Lately I found a descendant on ancestry. There were many Chenoweth-Ford connections in Washington Co. and I can't begin to sort them all out. The line is somewhat young, I know Parizade's son John Hobert Ford born September 10, 1902 is 7th generation. John Albert, who used the spelling Chinouth, married Sarah Galloway, the d/o George W. Galloway and Nancy Bacon. I recently found them buried in Hamblen Co., TN with their daughter Lora Belle on find-a-grave. Lora was one of 5 children. Three of them married: her sister Mary to Elijah J. Martin; and the two older brothers, George Arthur and Roland Albert to Minnie Lee Crawford and Nettie Bailey both going to Illinois. It was a happy day back in 2000 when I hooked up with Linda Karrow who gave me so much of this Illinois Chinouth family.

EZEKIAL R.5 CHINOUTH (ARCHIBALD4, JOHN3, RICHARD2, JOHN1) was born 1812 in Maryland. He married (1) ELIZABETH. She was born 1820 in Tennessee. He married (2) SARAH JOBE July 14, 1856 in Washington Co., TN, daughter of ENOCH JOBE and ELIZABETH JACKSON. She was born May 1822 in Washington Co., TN.

Children of EZEKIAL CHINOUTH and SARAH JOBE are:

- i. JOHN ALBERT6 CHINOUTH , b. August 24, 1858, Jonesboro, Washington Co., TN; d. May 23, 1938, Hamblen Co., TN; m. SARAH GALLOWAY, January 23, 1886, Washington Co., TN; b. April 09, 1858, Jonesboro, Washington Co., TN; d. December 27, 1937, Hamblen Co., TN.
- ii. PARIZADE CHINOUTH , b. May 1861, Washington Co., TN; m. GEORGE WASHINGTON FORD, 1899; b. May 1853, Washington Co., TN; d. December 25, 1917.

[Richard] Amanda went to West Virginia

I am doing an arduous thing, trying to insert find-a-grave keys into a new field in the database. I am not well organized any more so I am doing this in some sort of haphazard way. Working off my list of daughters we have found, I started working on Hannah's Ashtons one Saturday morning at Whidbey. This is of course Richard's daughter and only one of two 3rd generation Baltimore daughters we have developed trees on (the other is Arthur's daughter Ruth). I first got started on Hannah when Shirley Helen Muszynski contacted me in June 2000 about her Ashton line that went to Fairfield Co., OH. This was a huge breakthrough. Today Hannah's line runs 15 pages of about 900 names. That is about 100 more than it was earlier. This happened as I ran through Hannah's family adding in Ashtons buried in the Rock Spring Cemetery, Harford Co., MD, also known as Christ Church Cemetery and I came to Amanda Ashton, the d/o Joseph, Jr. My info was that she had married George "Machan" and we had found them in the 1850 Census with 7 children. It had ended there. Multiple searches on the 1860 and 1870 Censuses had yielded nothing. The family had vaporized. I now tried find-a-grave and got nothing. As find-a-grave requires exact names, no wild cards allowed, I started altering the surname. Bingo, after several tries "Mechem" worked, they had gone to Morgan Co., WV, well it was still Virginia back then. I did the full court press, opening up Mechems in Morgan Co. on find-a-grave, searching the 1860-1930 Censuses and using the wonderful collection of vital statistic at the West Virginia Archives and History. George was the apparent son of Francis Mechem, who had married in Chester Co., PA and moved to Harford Co., MD where George married Amanda on December 13, 1832. Both George and Amanda are buried in the Greenway Cemetery, Berkeley Springs, Morgan Co., WV with a number of their children and descendants. Morgan Co. abuts Berkeley Co. which has a rich Chenoweth history. In fact the present mayor of Berkeley Springs is a Chenoweth descendant, Susan J. Webster.

I was able to add 2 1860 listings and 3 1870 listings to my all family Census spreadsheets and it's been a while since I have done that. So the Mechems were the first family members in Morgan Co., WV. Others would follow, including some of Hannah's Carter line spilling over from their original Frederick Co., VA ties as the family grew in the area. Obviously there are cousins still there. Of the 7 children, Thomas, Joseph, Francis and Marion all married. The daughter Elizabeth died shortly after their arrival in Morgan Co. The son George is not found after the 1850 Census when he was 12 and his brother Richard not after the 1860 Census when he was 16. Joseph had no children by Census. Marion's two children died young. This left the line to the 10 children of George and Francis, evenly divided. The Mechem name would be carried on by the 4 sons, Harry, George William, John Ashton and Cleveland Francis. We have marriages for 5 of the 6 daughters, and Elizabeth was living in the 1900 Census according to her mother, so we have one more to find. On a lark I called Joe Mechem in Berkeley Springs and invited him to our Winchester Reunion only a few miles away. This was a nice find.

AMANDA5 ASHTON (JOSEPH4, HANNAH3 CHENOWETH, RICHARD2, JOHN1) was born December 19, 1814 in Harford Co., MD, and died February 08, 1896 in Morgan Co., WV. She married GEORGE MECHEM December 13, 1832 in Harford Co., MD, son of FRANCIS MECHEM and NAOMI GOODWIN. He was born March 04, 1804 in Pennsylvania, and died June 28, 1873 in Morgan Co., WV.

Children of AMANDA ASHTON and GEORGE MECHEM are:

- i. THOMAS G.6 MECHEM, b. November 15, 1836, Harford Co., MD; d. March 15, 1906, Morgan Co., WV; m. MARGARET A. LARUE; b. Abt. 1841, Maryland.
- ii. GEORGE W. MECHEM, b. Abt. 1838, Harford Co., MD.
- iii. JOSEPH A. MECHEM, b. October 23, 1840, Harford Co., MD; d. October 13, 1912, Phoenixville, Morgan Co., WV; m. (1) CAROLINE V. WHISHER, August 16, 1864, Morgan Co., WV; b.
